THE 2026-2027 PNC SEASON ANNUAL GUIDE

A NOTE FROM LEADERSHIP

Musicals don't just visit—they live in Sandy Springs.

Since our first production in the Byers Theatre in 2018, we've set out to deliver Broadway-scale productions to local audiences—right here in what is, for 40% of our patrons, their own backyard. Today, more than 6,400 season subscribers join us each year, an extraordinary reflection of the enthusiasm for live musical theatre across metro Atlanta.

The staff and board of City Springs Theatre Company are thrilled to welcome you to our NINTH SEASON, featuring four remarkable musicals: the epic Les Misérables, the sweeping and romantic Anastasia, the powerful contemporary story Dear Evan Hansen, and the high-energy classic Grease. Together, they represent what we love most about musical theatre—stories that move us, entertain us, bring us together, and leave us humming long after the curtain falls.

We begin with one of the most powerful musicals ever created, Les Misérables. Our Artistic Director, Shuler Hensley, made his Broadway debut in the show as Javert in 2001; 25 years later, he returns to direct our production, opening September 11, 2026.

From the earliest vision for the Sandy Springs Performing Arts Center, there was an ambition to create something that would elevate not only Sandy Springs, but the entire cultural landscape of metro Atlanta. Today, that vision extends beyond the stage—training and inspiring the next generation of artists through our Conservatory and education programs while bringing Broadway-caliber theatre to audiences close to home.

None of it happens without the support of our subscribers, donors, artists, crews, and patrons, and we are deeply grateful. And while we're proud of what we've built, we're far from finished.

We can't wait to share Season Nine with you. We hope to see you at the theater!

Natalie DeLancey, Executive Director
Shuler Hensley, Artistic Director
